General Manager's Letter

Radio as Art is what WRUW is about. While commercial stations use their music to make money, we use our music to serve those segments of the listening population that aren't necessarily profitable. As an enterprise not enslaved to the demons of the bottomline, we are free to explore. On WRUW you will hear programming that you cannot easily find anywhere else. Truly, there is something for everyone on 91.1FM. Our vision is, that at some point during the week, everybody tunes into our little station that broadcasts from the basement. Our mission is simple: Service. We aim to serve the communities that aren't served by traditional radio. We hope this Guide will introduce you, or help you along the path, to discovering what WRUW is all about. Radio like you've never smelled it before. It's an experience.--Scott Lieberman GM
